Please make the enclosed Category II application for Exhibit Hall Attendance available to attendees within the Exhibit Hall. Participants that return the completed form to ABC will be eligible to receive an additional credit.

Please be reminded that the number of credits that appear above will only be awarded to programs that follow the exact format that appears in the application.

To award credits to course attendees, please provide ABC with the sign-in sheets of attendance and program evaluation within 30 days of the meeting.

Certificates of Completion – Though ABC will track the attendance of eligible participants, those not credentialed by ABC or are not enrolled in our tracking service will need this documentation to provide to their governing body. Please be sure to provide your registrants with the necessary paperwork to receive credit for participating in your program. ABC will not need copies of these documents.

Below is recommended text for certificates advising participants of the number of credits awarded by ABC.

“This program has been approved for up to _____ credits through the American Board for Certification (ABC). Full participation in this program is required to be eligible for the full amount of credits.”

Sincerely,
